Members raise awareness for MMIWG2S, health care workers discuss working conditions at annual conference, rail workers at CN and CPKC face bargaining challenges, more workers at Pearson airport join Unifor, members mobilize in three ongoing provincial elections, and more.

🔥 WHAT'S HOT

📢 TAKE ACTION

Unifor's health care conference empowers health care workers in the fight for better working conditions and an improved health care system for all.

READ MORE

Tomorrow is the deadline to register for the Health, Safety and Environment Conference. Sign up now!

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members in 15 communities participated in the union's contribution to the 2024 Tears to Hope relay.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 100 and Council 4000 progress toward conciliation with CN, as Unifor Local 101R has officially opened contract talks with Canadian Pacific Kansas City, seeking to address key strike or lockout positions loom for January 2025.

READ MORE

issues affecting rail workers across 17 workplaces in Canada.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes 125 new members at The Nuance Group, located at Pearson International Airport in Toronto.

READ MORE

The rain didn't bother the Unifor members who showed up in force for a volunteer "burma shave" in Delta B.C. to support fellow member and election candidate Jason McCormick.

VIEW PHOTOS

Atlantic Regional Director Jennifer Murray joined members and the Unifor Votes team in Moncton for a Dinner & Door-Knocking event.

VIEW PHOTOS

Unifor is supporting Médecins Sans Frontières Canada and the International Federation of Journalists humanitarian and journalistic work in Gaza.

READ MORE

📝 BARGAINING UPDATES

Sault Ste. Marie paramedics secure a three-year deal with significant gains in wages and benefits.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 1016 is shining a spotlight on NAV Canada's determination to break pattern bargaining.

READ MORE

Pilots at EVAS Air have voted 100% in favour strike action if a fair collective agreement cannot be reached with the company.

READ MORE