

September 19, 2024

Walmart warehouse workers make history and join Unifor, political action in Nova Scotia successfully sheds a spotlight on Intimate Partner Violence, members at Trench Ltd. begin strike action, Media Council delegates discuss challenges, important gains for Nova Scotia health care members, CAMI members reach tentative agreement with GM and more.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

More than 9,100 members in the Nova Scotia Health Care bargaining unit ratified a new collective agreement that sees general and job-specific wage increases.

READ MORE

Calling new Health and Safety reps! Spots are available in the Health and Safety: Beyond the Basics three-day classes in locations across the country. Register now!

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Workers at Walmart's Mississauga warehouse have voted to join Unifor, becoming the first Walmart warehouse to unionize in Canada.

READ MORE

AI, big tech and building workers' power all engaging conversations at the 30th annual Media Council.

READ MORE

180 members of Unifor Local 303 walked off the job Sept. 14, after Trench Ltd. refused to negotiate sufficient wage and benefit improvements.

READ MORE

Unifor turns up the heat on Best Theratronics at latest rally.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor's Labour Market Insights for August shows Canada's unemployment rate rose to 6.6%, the highest since 2017. Read more to find out about regional and industry-specific trends.

READ MORE

Members at CAMI Assembly and Battery Assembly will vote on a tentative agreement with GM this weekend.

READ MORE